CRISIS AND COMMONWEALTH

MARCUSE, MARX, McLAREN

Edited by Charles Reitz

Contributors to this edited collection, notably Peter McLaren, Henry Giroux, Peter Marcuse, Arnold L. Farr and editor, Charles Reitz, are deeply engaged with the foundational theories of Marcuse and Marx with regard to a future of freedom, equality, and justice.

The collection extends the critical theories of Marcuse, Marx and McLaren to an analysis of the intensifying inequalities symptomatic of our current economic distress. It develops a feasible political economic strategy for its alternative commonwealth paradigm.

The collection is intended especially to appeal to contemporary interests of college students and teachers in several interrelated disciplines: sociology, social problems, economics, ethics, business ethics, labor education, history, political philosophy, multicultural education, and critical pedagogy.

Lessons are drawn to inform transformative political action, as well as the practice of a critical, multicultural pedagogy, supporting a manifesto for radical educators contributed by Peter McLaren.
